Johnson & Wales University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, disability, religion, gender identity or expression, genetic information, marital status, pregnancy, veteran status, or any other legally protected status in its admission of students, in its programs and activities, or its employment. It admits qualified students to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the university. Johnson & Wales University has instituted these policies to ensure a nondiscriminatory environment and to meet legal requirements, including but not limited to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Johnson & Wales University also does not tolerate harassment of any kind. The university prohibits sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, which are a form of sex discrimination. Inquiries regarding application of Title IX and its implementing regulation and any inquiries regarding the university's nondiscrimination and harassment policies can be made to: Title IX Coordinator/Nondiscrimination Coordinator/Section 504 Coordinator, 8 Abbott Park Place, Providence, RI 02903, 401-598-2703, titleix@jwu.edu, or the Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, DC, 20202-1100, 800-421-3481. In compliance with the Higher Education Act, Johnson & Wales University publishes an Annual Security Report and an Annual Fire Safety Report. The Annual Security Report discloses information about campus security and statistics concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, on university-controlled property, and on public property immediately adjacent to campus. The Annual Fire Safety Report discloses information about the campus fire safety policies and procedures and fire statistics for each residence hall. Copies of the reports may be obtained from Admissions or by searching the keywords "annual security report" at jwu.edu. Completion and graduation rate data for specific cohorts of first-time, full-time undergraduate students are available. Please contact financial aid analyst Annette Cataldo at acataldo@jwu.edu for assistance obtaining this information.
