To promote its commitment to training the next generation of culinary and hospitality leaders, The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman has established a scholarship to benefit one student per year from Grand Cayman Island who has shown excellence in his or her high school academic career.

The student will annually receive the full cost of tuition, room and board, and academic fees, with an additional $1,000 allocated for books and supplies, for up to four years. In addition, The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman Scholar will receive a paid internship at The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman resort for each year he or she is enrolled at Johnson & Wales University.

To fulfill the requirements of the scholarship The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman Scholar must

- Graduate from one of Grand Cayman's government high schools
- Meet admissions requirements and be accepted into a Johnson & Wales University bachelor's degree program in the College of Food Innovation & Technology (CFIT) or the College of Hospitality Management on any campus of JWU or through JWU's College of Online Education.
- Attend full time and be in good academic standing at the time of the award
- Email Janette Goodman at janette.goodman@ritzcarlton.com indicating that he or she has applied to Johnson & Wales and is interested in the scholarship.
